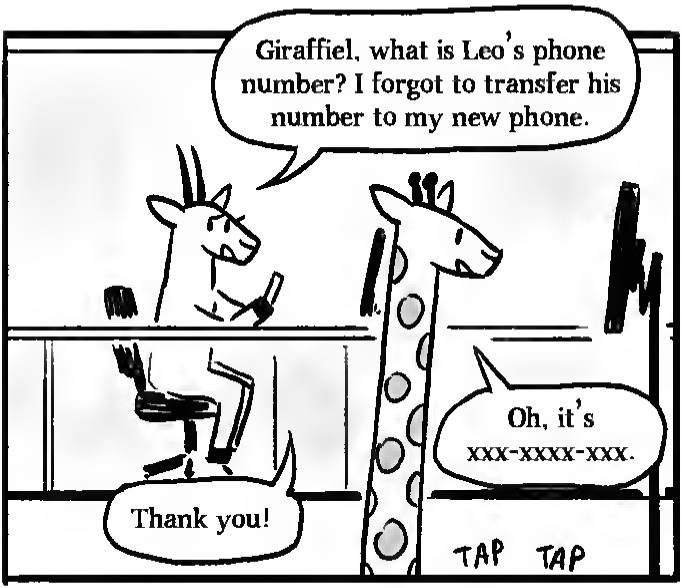
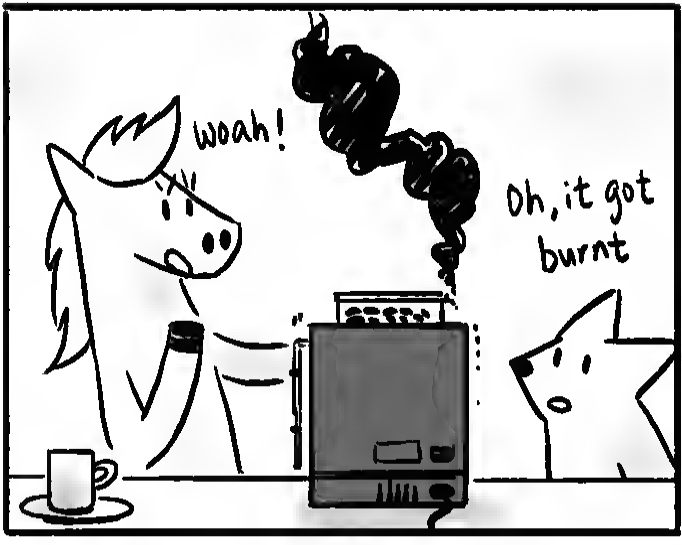
I learn memorizing skills from Giraffiel,
who remembers everyone's phone numbers,
birthdays and addresses.



Everyone has some special quality that I don't have, so everyone is my teacher!
And that includes you!

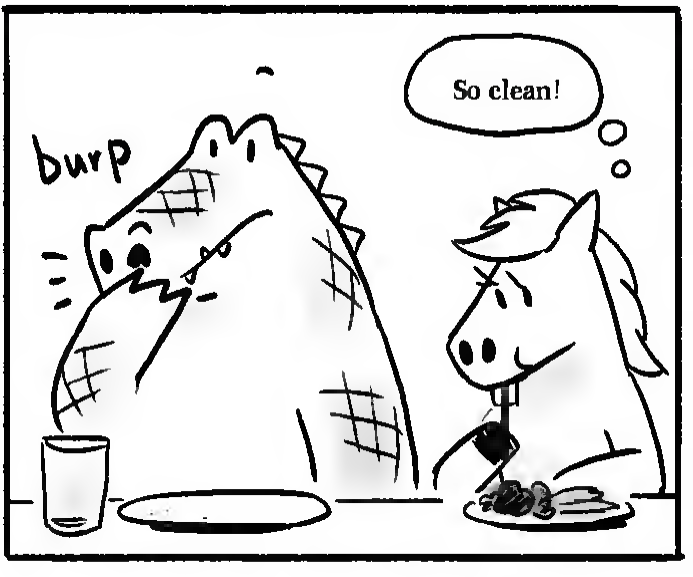
How should we order for tonight's party?
If we order 2 of set B with 3 add-on snacks, we will have free drinks for everyone, and the price is enough for free delivery.
I can also get 5 stamps for the coupon reward!

I learn from Anntelope to keep my stuff tidy as well as the ones around me.



I learn a lotttt of things from Mr.Elephunk and his approach to life.

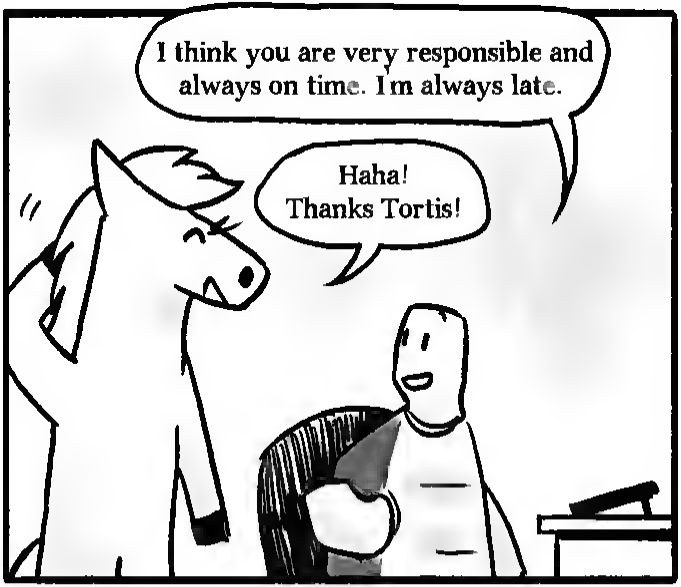
Thanks, Horsie...
I feel much better now.
That's great!
By the way, you didn't talk about your special quality...



I learn from Mr.Pigkles on being price-conscious and getting the best deal.

ROAR STREET JOURNAL

I learn from Doglas on how to keep learning.
He's very studious and he's like a walking dictionary.



I think you are very responsible and always on time. I'm always late.
Haha! Thanks Tortis!

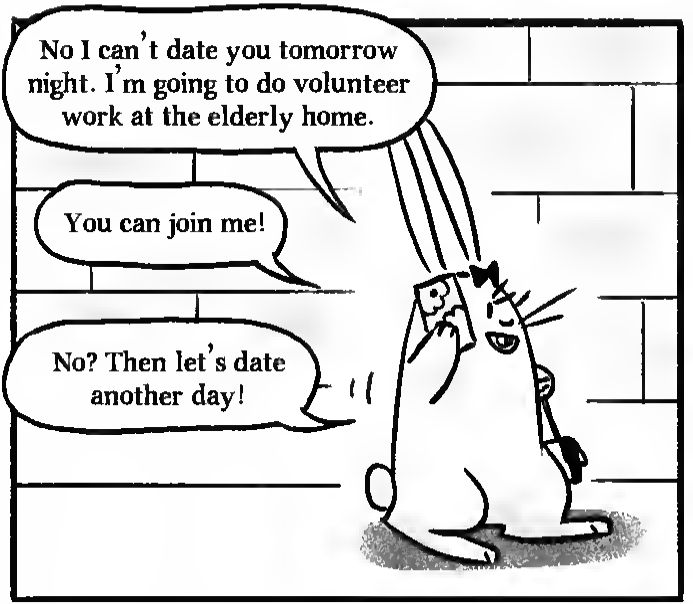
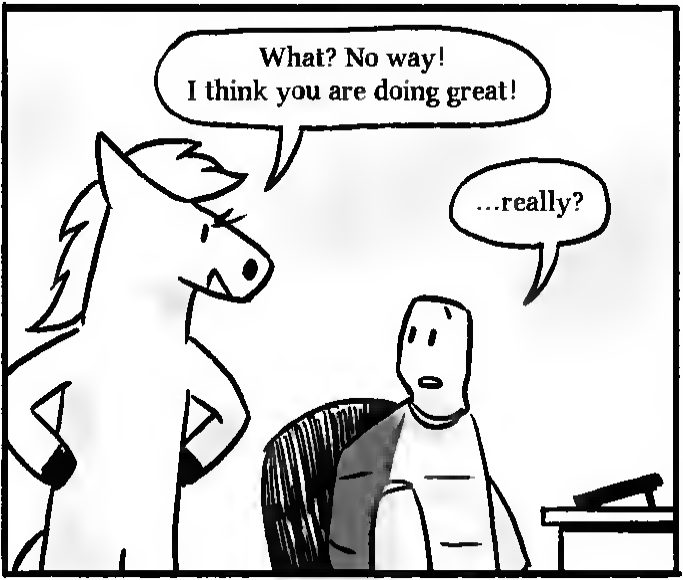
What other words can I use to describe the good taste of a dish?
Try rich, aromatic, delectable, lush...
Or do you want to be more specific?

I learn to show more affection to the elderly from Tiffany, who always takes time to care for the old.

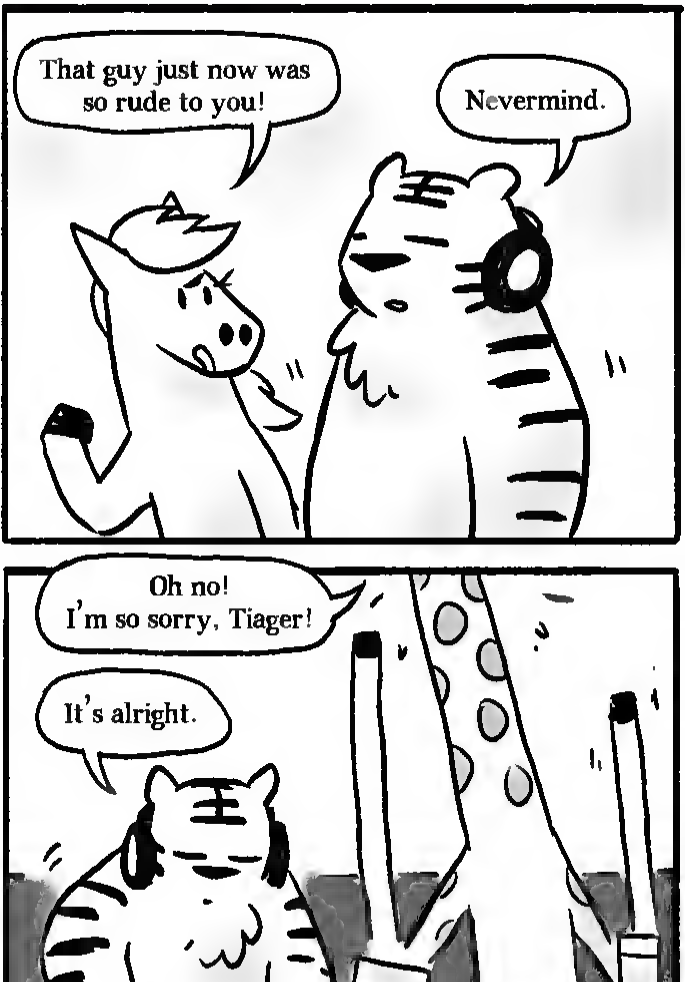


No I can't date you tomorrow night. I'm going to do volunteer work at the elderly home.
You can join me!
No? Then let's date another day!



What? No way!
I think you are doing great!
...really?

You work slower because you are very careful. That's something I'm not good at.
That's why we need you to proofread our writing!



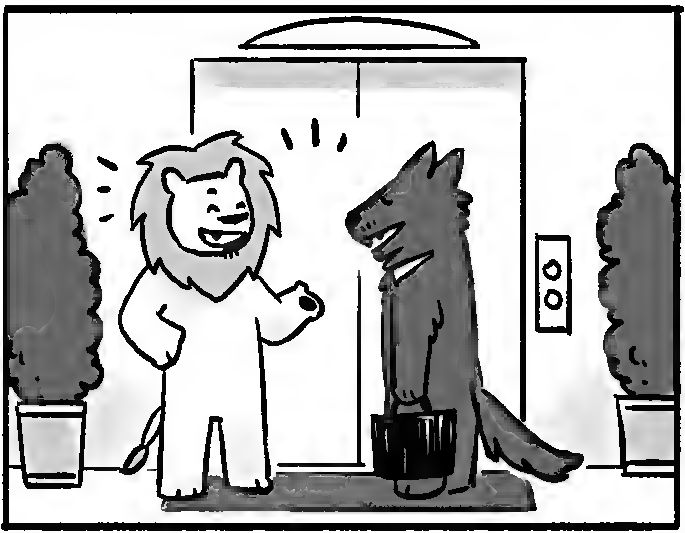
That guy just now was so rude to you!
Nevermind.
Oh no! I'm so sorry, Tiager!
It's alright.

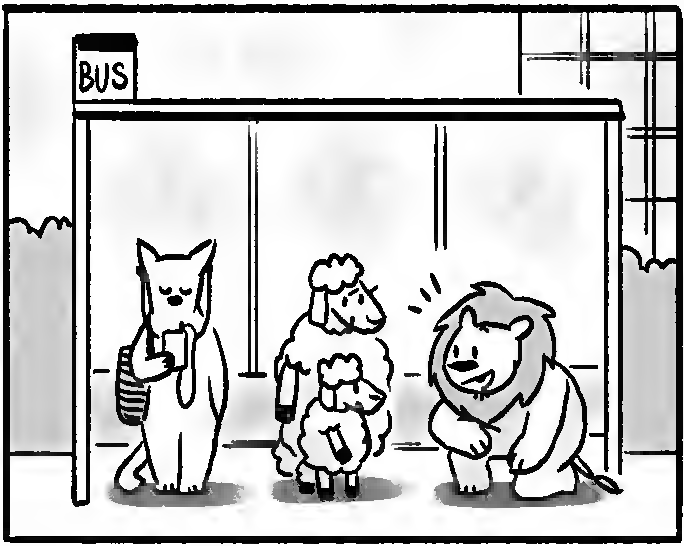
Horsie's desk

I learn how to make a nice cup of coffee from Foxy.

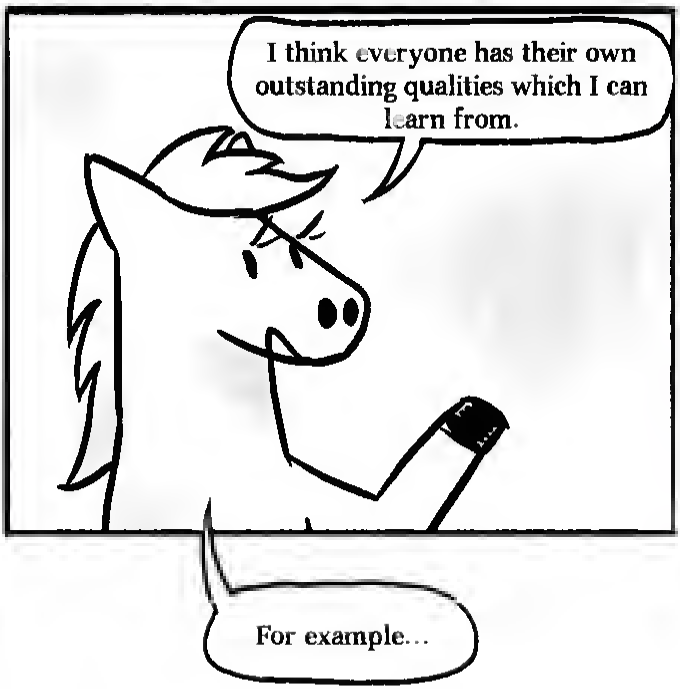
I learn from Allie to never be wasteful and always finish my food.

I learn from Tiager how to be easy going and forgiving. He never gets upset at anything.

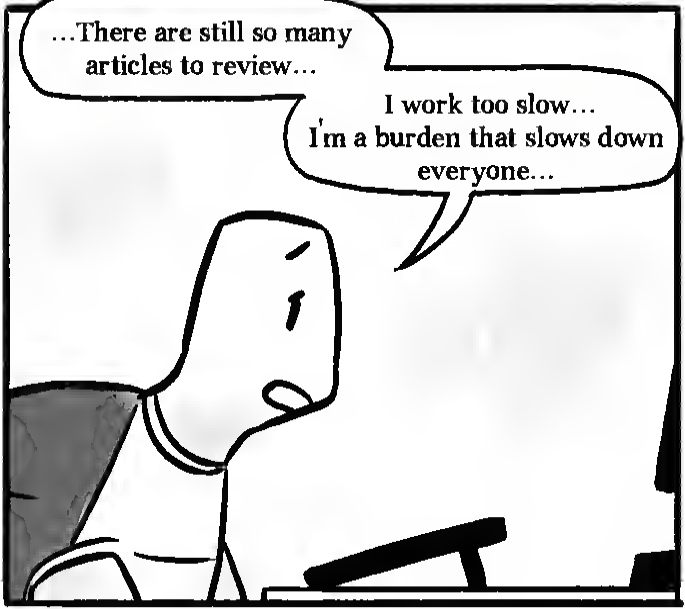




BUS

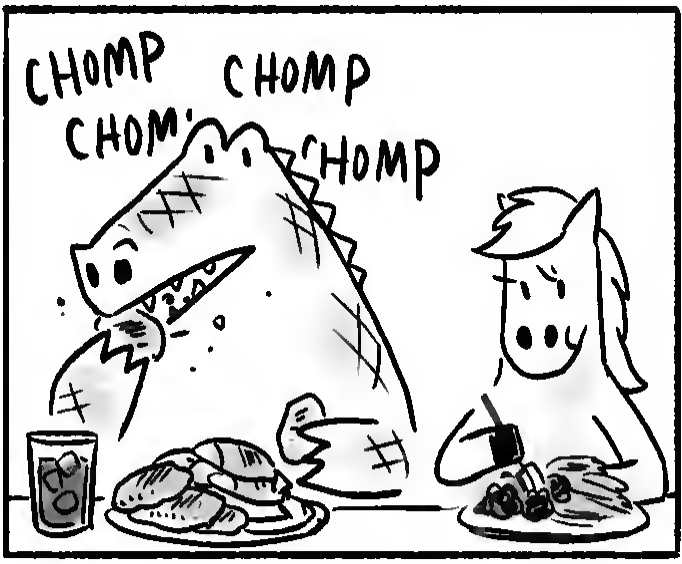


I learn from Leo how to treat everyone alike with the same kindness.



...There are still so many articles to review...
I work too slow... I'm a burden that slows down everyone...

Hey you!
What are you good at?
Tell us about your special qualities so everyone can learn something from you!



CHOMP CHOMP

gulg gulg gulg
So fast!

Are you alright?
Why the long face?
I'm alright...

Something To Learn From Everyone

I learn from Cheetah-B in staying calm in the most hectic situation.
